Attendees

Meetings have been regularly attended by representatives from member companies HP, Microsoft, and Netscape, with representatives from other member companies attending occasionally.

Progress

The group has been working through the initial drafts of the Edition 4 document, and has come to agreement on many previously contentious topics, such as array syntax, the hoisting algorithm, optional and named arguments. The group has agreed in principal to most of the current proposal, and are working through the details.

Latest Status

Waldemar is currently in the process of writing the first draft of the document. In August we reviews chapters 9 and 10; the schedule for further reviews is as follows:
