1   Directions

The easiest way into town (though maybe not the fastest) is to take the SAS Flybussen (Airport Bus) to the Radisson SAS Scandinavia Hotel (which is the bus's last stop). If your goal is to carry your bags as little as possible, this is the way to go.

The fastest way to get to downtown (which may or may not be the fastest way to get to your hotel, mind you) is to take the Flytoget (airport express train) to Oslo S (Oslo central train station). From there, it's bus, T-bane (subway – look for the big T), trikk (light rail), osloferjene (Oslo ferry), or taxi to wherever you're staying. For all but the taxis, check out Trafikanten:

Useful words when trying to navigate trafikanten:

- kart = map

- tog = train

- Jernbanetorget (foran Oslo S) = the main public transportation hub (right in front of Oslo S)

For hotels, Opera has a list here.

Some of the members have also enjoyed staying at the Thon Hotel Opera (that is as in "the opera", not "Opera Software".
